SCHEDULE III

Background statement under section 4 of the Regulation respecting the recruitment and selection procedure for disciplinary council chairs of professional orders

A	Indictable offence or criminal offence[1]

Have you been found guilty of an indictable offence or a criminal offence?

Yes ☐   No ☐

If you have been found guilty of an indictable offence or criminal offence, please specify the offence in question and the sentence imposed, including any offence for which you have been granted a record suspension[2] within the meaning of the Criminal Records Act (Revised Statutes of Canada 1985, chapter C-47).

B	Penal offence[3]

Have you been found guilty of an penal offence likely to question the integrity or impartiality of the Bureau des présidents des conseils de discipline, of yourself or of disciplinary councils, to interfere with your ability to perform your duties or to ruin the trust of the public in you?

Yes ☐   No ☐

If you have been found guilty of a penal offence and it is reasonable to believe that it could have the above-mentioned effects, please specify the offence in question and the sentence imposed.

C	Disciplinary decision

Have you been the subject of a complaint before a competent body of a professional order?

Yes ☐   No ☐

If yes, describe the object of any complaint/attach any relevant document.

[1]   Indictable offence or criminal offence means any offence under the Criminal Code or qualified as an indictable offence or criminal offence in any other federal law.

[2]   Criminal record suspension within the meaning of the Criminal Records Act (Revised Statutes of Canada 1985, chapter C-47), formerly called pardon, is a clemency measure that may be granted to a person who has been convicted under a federal law. Therefore, criminal record suspension is only possible in respect of an offence under the Criminal Code or another federal penal law.

[3]   Penal offence means any offence, other than a criminal offence, created and penalized under a provincial or federal law or regulation (for example the Highway Safety Act).

Have you been the subject of a disciplinary decision rendered by a competent body of a professional order or by the Professions Tribunal?

Yes ☐   No ☐

If yes, describe the object of any complaint/attach any relevant document.
