

When an activity is carried out in the territory of a municipality that overlaps more than one bioclimatic domain, the bioclimatic domain applicable to the activity is the domain that represents the largest part of the territory of the municipality.

